COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The latest word from the Water Improvement Commission is that the Androscoggin River will have to be cleaned up by 1973. The deadline was not set by the Water Improvement Commission but by the Federal Department of Health Education and Welfare. The federal control is due to the fact that the Androscoggin is an interstate river. All pollution abatement programs will have to be completed by 1973. The Selectmen will continue their local study of solutions to the pollution caused by the town. If and when the requirements are more than the selectmen can handle, they will appoint a committee to continue the work.

Since the Assessors' Notice appeared in the paper, there have been several questions regarding exemptions. To qualify for the $3500 property exemption the veteran must be 62 years old or older or totally disabled. If anyone is in doubt about the exemption, he can check with the Veterans' Office. Any veteran who is entitled to an exemption and has NOT filled out the necessary papers, must complete the forms for the exemption. Anyone who has completed the papers in the past does not have to complete them again.

The highway crew has been repairing equipment during the past week. Some cold patching has been done but the cold patch pile is still frozen pretty solid. There is plenty of spring work to do but the season can't be rushed.

Michael Houlihan

Dr. E. L. Brown is a patient at the CMG Hospital.

Miss Carol Ann Young returned last week end to her studies at Dean Junior College, Franklin, Mass.

Mr. John Young, of Bethel, president of the Women's Auxiliary to the Maine Medical Association, will participate in the regional Conference for Women's National Organizations on Efficient Highway Transportation and the Reduction of Traffic Accidents, at New York on April 14-15.

GOULD'S PRODUCTION OF "BRIGADOON" TO BE PRESENTED APRIL 24-25

The Gould Academy production of "Brigadoon," now in the final weeks of preparation for a two-night run on April 24 and 25, has already created considerable stir throughout the Bethel area and beyond. Ticket requests have reached the school from Aroostook to Sanford, indicating the tremendous interest being generated by this ambitious undertaking among parents, friends, music and dramatic instructors from around Maine.

One of the salient features of "Brigadoon," and also one of its more difficult aspects, is the degree of coordination required in synchronizing the musical components (band, chorus, lyrical delivery), choreography, dialogue plot-line, and staging technique (intricate set changes and lighting control). It is this feature that has stimulated so much interest among music and dramatics people from other schools.

The performers, themselves, however, remain ultimately responsible for the best effects of any show. In this regard the directors of "Brigadoon" are confident that they have talented and dedicated personnel working unusually hard to put together a fine result.

Featured as leads are: Jane Look, Addison; Greg Gilmes, Bethel; Jackson Andrews, West Paris; Cindy Freeman, Bethel; Susan Davis, Bethel; Susan Bartash, Rumford; Tim Kins, Bala-Cynod, Pa.

Appearing in supporting roles will be: Sarah Burgess, Blue Hill; Tim Hutchins, Bethel; John Lombard, Kennebunkport; Alan Howard, Orrington; Ed Dudley, Littleton, N. H.; John Young, Bethel; Linda Lord, Bethel.

The above plus pit band, chorus, dancers, and stage crew compose the large production force which will bring "Brigadoon" to the stage. The show is called by its authors, Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe, "a whimsical musical fantasy" to be William Bangs Auditorium stage at 8:00 p. m. on April 24 and 25.

HELP! MOTHERS WANTED IN THE HOT LUNCH ROOM

The mothers participation in the hot lunch program at the Bethel High School was started ten years ago by Edith Epper, then president of the PTA. The many mothers who have given of their time to work in this program are to be highly commended.

The lunch duties are three mothers per day once a week, or once every other week, serving and passing food and answering the children's needs.

Through the cooperation of the mothers they have tried to make the lunch hour a happy experience at the same time trying to teach the children respect for others, basic table manners, and a positive attitude about eating some of all of the food put before them.

Unless more mothers volunteer for this worthwhile cause, NOW the mothers program will have to stop soon. As this is a PTA project, all mothers who are members should seriously consider giving 45 minutes of their time in this capacity. PLEASE! Call us at Main 4-2745.

FOUR INJURED AS CARS COLLIDE LAST FRIDAY

A three-car collision hospitalized four persons and demolished two vehicles last Friday morning. The accident occurred near the Thurston farm in Mayville.

Taken to the Rumford Community Hospital by ambulance were Rene J. Landreville, Montreal, Que., and William C. Duston, Lynnfield, Mass.

Reports said Landreville was treated for broken ribs, bumps and bruises. Duston suffered chest injuries and had some front teeth knocked out by the impact of the crash.

Barbara Coochever, Juneau, Alaska, was treated for a bump on the head and a back injury and then released. Also released was Kevin O'Gorman, Waterville, N. Y., who suffered a back injury.

The drivers of the vehicles were identified by police as being Landreville, Duston and Rodger E. Wisnann, Jr., Hanover, N. H.

The Duston auto reportedly went into a skid on the slippery pavement and collided head-on with the Landreville machine, which was traveling towards Bethel. The impact of the accident demolished both vehicles. Unable to stop, Wisnann, who was following Duston, struck the vehicles broadside.

Investigating the 11 a. m. accident were State Trooper William Burkford, and Deputy Sheriff Alton Howe, both of Bethel.

School Notes

The pupils enjoyed pictures on "Keeping America Beautiful" this week in the 3rd and 6th grade at the Union School. The third grade took it to heart and have cooperated in trying to keep the litter picked up on the school grounds. Everyone should see this picture. They would think twice before throwing litter on the highway. In the western states the fine is $500.00. In one incident the man was fined and, also, had to pick up the litter on that piece of highway for a mile. A police officer saw the work and passed his approval upon it before the man was free to leave. This type of punishment might work on highway litterbugs in Maine.

Several children are out of school with the mumps. Terry Herryment, Eugene Belegarde, Valerie Knights, Paul Benson, Pamela Lundbeck has missed four days of school also.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Anderson arrived home from Florida Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cushman, Auburn, called on Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Davis Sunday evening.

Benny Benson has been making syrup this spring.

Mrs. Eva Poland called on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Park Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gammon and two children of East Sumner called on his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Gammon.

Several attended the benefit dance held for Mr. and Mrs. Ormond Andrews and family held Friday night at Bryant Pond.

Tony and Deven Andrews spent some time with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Titus, St. Paris spent Sunday afternoon and evening with Mrs. Titus' brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Andrews.

Mrs. Virginia Mason and Mrs. Mabel Thurston went to Washington, D. C. the last of the week. Mrs. Thurston will remain to visit her children Dorinda and Correll who live there for a while.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

March 23, 1964

Dear Editor, Teen, and Adult of Bethel area.

Anyone seeing your columns in the last two issues of the Bethel Citizen would be greatly humbled by your backward approaches toward the so-called "Beatle problem!"

In reply to Bethel's teen who thinks the Beatles are being "cut down" by the adults, you were wrong to think this for this is not the case at all. Adults along with many intelligent teens see right through this.
They both see this as a way for a big "money man" to make a fast buck. This is what happened and is happening.

Mr. Epstein, an English promoter, is no doubt making well over 50% of the profit on the articles having to do with Beatles, such as records, wigs, books and Beatle wallpaper.
The Beatles do have talent which can be seen by anyone who has heard some of the singers of today. This point is not, I repeat, not being dissensioned by our parents. It is the previous point that boils the adults. They can't see dumping money in a promoter's pocket and neither can I. But there is nothing wrong with having the Beatles as musical idols even though they have a few undesirable habits. I'm sure some adults in Bethel had at one time teen idols. How many have teen idols today! These adults changed and so will the teens.

Now in reply to Bethel's adult I would like to say I'm sure there is not one teen in Bethel who does not admire his parents and does not want to follow in their tracks and then improve some.

The Beatles are making money, this is a known fact. The Beatles are not making money because they are Beatles or because they pulled the wool over the teen's eyes. If the teen public has been fooled it was done by Epstein. By using promotional techniques he built the Beatles. So your beef is with today's type of advertising and promotion. Epstein used these methods on a teenage scale and it worked so you can count on others like the Beatles coming.

As few know the Beatles were becoming in demand right before they signed up with Epstein. One can only guess if they would have become a great without Epstein, but it is doubtful.

I have personally talked to many teens about Epstein and only one knew of him. So what happened to your tax dollar that was to educate us? Is it not agreeable then, that we should be taught about such things?

A Gould Freshman of Bethel
Tom Padner

Dear Mr. Editor:

There is an article in the week's (April 11) issue of the Saturday Evening Post which expresses my own sentiments, and since it is written by a Professor of psychology, who is also principal of a school for mentally ill children, and not I'd like to urge all those involved in the field of education to give it thoughtful scrutiny.

This article is "Stop Pamper-ing Gifted Children" by Bruce Bettelheim. Perhaps it would attract more attention if it had been titled "Are We Teaching Our Children to Become Intellectual Snobs?"

Personally, I am not certain what a "gifted" child is. Is it the child who follows instructions in the three "r's" and gets all "A's"; or the child who can take an ailing machine apart and put it together again so that it runs smoothly; or like one crazy individual who is fused to believe that the shoe was the smallest known particle as he was taught?

One sentence alone weighs as much as the rest of the article, particularly when stated by one responsible for the direction of treatment of mentally ill children: "I hope it is clear by now that I am talking about the acquisition not so much of knowledge as of values."

Sincerely,
Phyllis Dock

stein. One can only guess if they would have become a great without Epstein, but it is doubtful.

I have personally talked to many teens about Epstein and
only one knew of him. So what happened to your tax dollar
that was to educate us? Is it not agreeable then, that we should be taught about such things?

7TH & 8TH GRADES HOLD MOCK ELECTION

The 7th and 8th grades of the Bethel area Crescent Park School, under the supervision of social studies teacher, Forest E. Hammond, have been conducting a mock political convention and election. Boys and girls from each of the four classes in the two grades were chosen to play the parts of actual presidential hopefuls. They made and presented speeches to the members of the class. Many of these speeches were taped so that other classes could have the benefit of them.

The three days of political activity were culminated by the casting of ballots in a manner similar to the way actual balloting is conducted. Forty students from the two grades were active as political presidential hopefuls, and 135 students voted by ballot on April 3rd.

Balloting resulted in a landslide for President Johnson, who received 67 votes. Lodge was second with 36, Nixon was third with 22, Margaret Smith was fourth with 8, Goldwater and Rockefeller were fifth and sixth with one vote each. Romney, Seranton, and Wallace, whose names also appeared on the ballot, did not receive any support.

Student polls are conducted on a national scale during election years, and in many cases they have forecast a near accurate picture. The result of the Bethel voting has been forwarded to the National Student Poll headquarters in Connecticut where it will become a part of the vote taken all over the nation.

Bethel students maintained a high interest throughout the campaign, and it is generally felt that this has been a valuable lesson in citizenship.

GIRL SCOUTS, TROOP 533

Girl Scouts met at the Legion Rooms Tuesday April 7. Different troops reported on subjects. Some of the girls got new badges and cooking badges. We played some games.—Your Scribe, Elaine Conner.

GOD AND COUNTRY BADGE PRESENTED TO LOCAL SCOUT

The first God and Country badge to be recorded in the Bethel Boy Scout records was presented to James Perkins at a ceremony at the Methodist Church Sunday morning. Donald Hesse, minister of the church, made the presentation.

James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Perkins, Mason St. He is 17 years old and plans to enter Mount Academy next fall. He started working on the God and Country Badge about one year ago with the aid of his father who is Scoutmaster of the troop, his mother, Rev. Donald Hamilton, and lately Rev. Donald Hesse. Various requirements were met as part in a church play, working in Varsity, Bible School, bazaar booth—greater at church service—reading a missionary tract, interviewing a business man. He was presented by a church board and members from the Bethel and Perkins families. He is a faithful church attendee and member of the MYP. His parents were presented pins in recognition of aid and guidance given to him during the year.

He has been a Scout two and one-half years and a Cub Scout three years. Two years found him at Camporee at one year he attended Camp Ramblin. He spent one year as patrol leader and a new Scout Pat and leader before entering the service to receive the badge at the ceremony. He is a member of the local pack.

He is a student at Crescent Park School and plays trumpet in the Crescent Park School Band. He has a place in the life also.
